VOTE SATURDAY AT CITY HALL 7 A. M. TO 6 P. M.

The Polls will open at 7 a. m. and close at 6 p. m. Saturday for voting on the proposed $3 million Utility Bond Issue. Balloting for all of Bay St. Louis will be at City Hall.

Poll Tax receipts will not be required, Eugene Davis of the election commission, advised voters to bring them with them to avoid confusion as the registration books have recently been purged. A vote for the bond issue will mean reduction in mosquitoes in this area, of which it is estimated 60% are bred in sewage water; reduction in many health hazards; elimination of sewerage and ditches; and continued enjoyment of our beaches.

National Aeronautics and Space Administration negotiators have made a verbal offer to pay $410,000 to Hancock County for 12 miles of county roads in the site zone of Mississippi Test Operations.

President R. G. Hubbard Jr. of the Hancock County Board of Supervisors said he is "very tickled" with the offer and indicated the board is expected to accept when confirmation of the offer is officially received.

Hancock County has been seeking compensation for hard-surfaced and gravel roads in the test site and buffer ones of the rocket static test center as compensation for loss of assessed valuation and to finance development of roads elsewhere in the County where former residents of the test area have relocated.

TEST ZONE

There are 42 miles of county roads in the area but only seven miles of hard-surfaced roads and five miles of gravel roads within the test site zone itself, Hubbard said.

He said the offer by representatives of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration did not apply to roads in the buffer zone.

Hubbard said NASA negotiators indicated the government would pay Hancock County 50 percent of the money when the agreement is confirmed to enable the board to begin hard-surfacing county roads outside the MTO area and the remainder as each road project is completed approved.

He said county roads inside the MTO area probably will be abandoned by the county when final agreement is reached.

ENDORSE LEGISLATION

The Hancock County Chamber of Commerce board of directors went on record at Monday night's meeting endorsing legislation introduced by Rep. James Simpson of Harrison County which would give the Mississippi Marine Commission authority to regulate Menhaden fishing in the Mississippi Sound.

The bill is currently before the fisheries committee of the House of Representatives.

The board also voted to hold the April 20, meeting for the general membership at the Bay-Waveland Yacht Club.

FEED PROGRAM SIGN-UP REPORTED

As of March 12, 1964, 110 farms in Hancock County had been signed up for participation in the 1964 feed grain program, Paul E. Woods, Chairman of the Hancock Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee, has announced. County farms eligible to take part in the program total 257. "Eligible" farms are those which grow one or more of the three feed grains—corn, grain sorghum, or barley—during the program's base years 1959 and 1960.

Feed grain acreage signed up for diversion through the program now totals 1449 acres of corn.

Based on farmers' intentions as recorded at the ASACS county office, these producers will earn an estimated $38,445.15 in diversion payment for participating in the feed grain program this year.

Throughout Mississippi, 14,512 of the total 55,951 "eligible" farms had been signed up to take part in the program as of February 27, 1964. Acreage signed up for diversion totaled 230,089 acres.

The chairman points out that the 1964 feed grain program offers farmers an opportunity to continue the progress of the past two years in balancing supplies with estimated needs. At the same time, the program payments give participants a substantial return from their acreage in which they usually have a heavy investment.

Under the program, a grower who reduces his feed grain acreage of corn, grain sorghum, and barley by at least 20 percent of his farm's total base acreage will earn a diversion payment for shifting the acreage from production to a conserving. (Payments for 1964 will average higher than last year and the maximum diversion is higher.) The participating grower will also qualify for a price support payment on the normal production of the 1964 planted acreage of the three crops, and for loans or purchase agreements on all the corn, grain sorghum, and barley produced on the farm's 1964 acreage.

Mr. Woods reminds farmers that the program sign-up is now under way at the county office and will extend through March 27. He urges an early sign-up as the best way to avoid the delays and crowded office conditions which could develop as the deadline nears.

STENNIS REPORTS ON COTTON ACREAGE BILL BEFORE HOUSE

WASHINGTON—The farm bill which has passed the Senate after a prolonged debate is a step toward keeping our present cotton acreage and making cotton able to compete with synthetics.

Mississippi cotton farmers have sought a type of cotton program that would protect our most vital farm cash crop and I am greatly encouraged that we have moved forward in that direction with this bill.

The bill recognizes the serious problems facing cotton farmers whose markets have been upset in recent years by nylon, rayon, rayon, and other synthetics. The bill, if passed, will be passed in a different form. I think the Senate version of the bill meets our cotton problems in a more practical way.

The bill prevents any reduction in present cotton acreage allotments. It sets up essential safeguards to protect farm income, with special provisions to assure our small farmers a fair price.

The bill makes cotton fully competitive with synthetics and in time will balance the supply and demand of cotton. It will substantially reduce the cost of the cotton program, with an annual estimated savings to the government of more than 342 million dollars on the cotton program.

The bill guarantees a price support of 30 cents a pound for middling inch cotton to every cotton farmer for his entire allotment. It authorizes 34½ cents a pound price support to those who wish to plant only their domestic allotment.

Under the Senate bill, those small farmers with 15 acres or less would be authorized the full price of 34½ cents a pound on their allotment. More than 77 percent of all Mississippi cotton farmers have acreage allotments of 15 acres or less.

The bill now returns to the House for possible agreement and final enactment soon.

HOME AGENT'S NOTES

How to whiten nylon is a problem that comes in most homes. First, to keep your nylons white always wash them separately. Use good washing methods. A mild bleach—but not a chlorine bleach—in hot water prevents build-up of that unwanted yellowness or grays.

But if you have the problem of getting your nylons white again, use 2 tablespoons chlorine bleach, 1 teaspoon of household vinegar, 1 gallon of warm water. Soak the garments up to 30 minutes and rinse well. Repeat the treatment if necessary.

FOOD NOTES

To take care of the empties when you grease too many muffin cups for the amount of batter you have, fill the empty ones half full of water. This prevents the grease from scorching while muffins bake.

Grease only the bottom of muffin cups. Muffins have better shape when sides are not greased. If you prefer, line muffin cups with paper baking cups and save on dishwashing.

Cabbage is less likely to lose its vitamin C in storage than most other leafy vegetables. How much vitamin C it retains depends on the care you give it. Keep cabbage cold and don't let it dry out. Shred it just before serving and use a sharp knife. Bruising with dull cutting equipment reduces the vitamin C rapidly, and so does letting shredded cabbage set at room temperature for a long time. Remember to cook poultry thoroughly but not to overcook. The meat is more juicy and here is less shrinkage this way.

DRYING CLOTHES

Careful there, as you set your dryer. You don't want to overbake your clothes, do you? They may shrink, even though the label said they wouldn't.

You will come out with clothes in better condition if you under-dry rather than over-dry. Remove cotton slacks, jeans, shorts, shirts, pajamas and dresses while they still have a trace of moisture. These garments may feel damp while they are hot, but by the time they are folded, they will be dry.

Garments you leave in the dryer too long not only shrink, but wrinkle badly. They no longer float, but "thud down" from the top of the drum, and this pounding cracks and breaks the bone-

MISSISSIPPI'S industrial growth takes a giant stride forward

Our new Pascagoula refinery—America's most modern—is now in full production. This new refinery not only assures Mississippians finest-quality petroleum products but also, we believe, marks the beginning of a new era in the industrial growth of Mississippi.

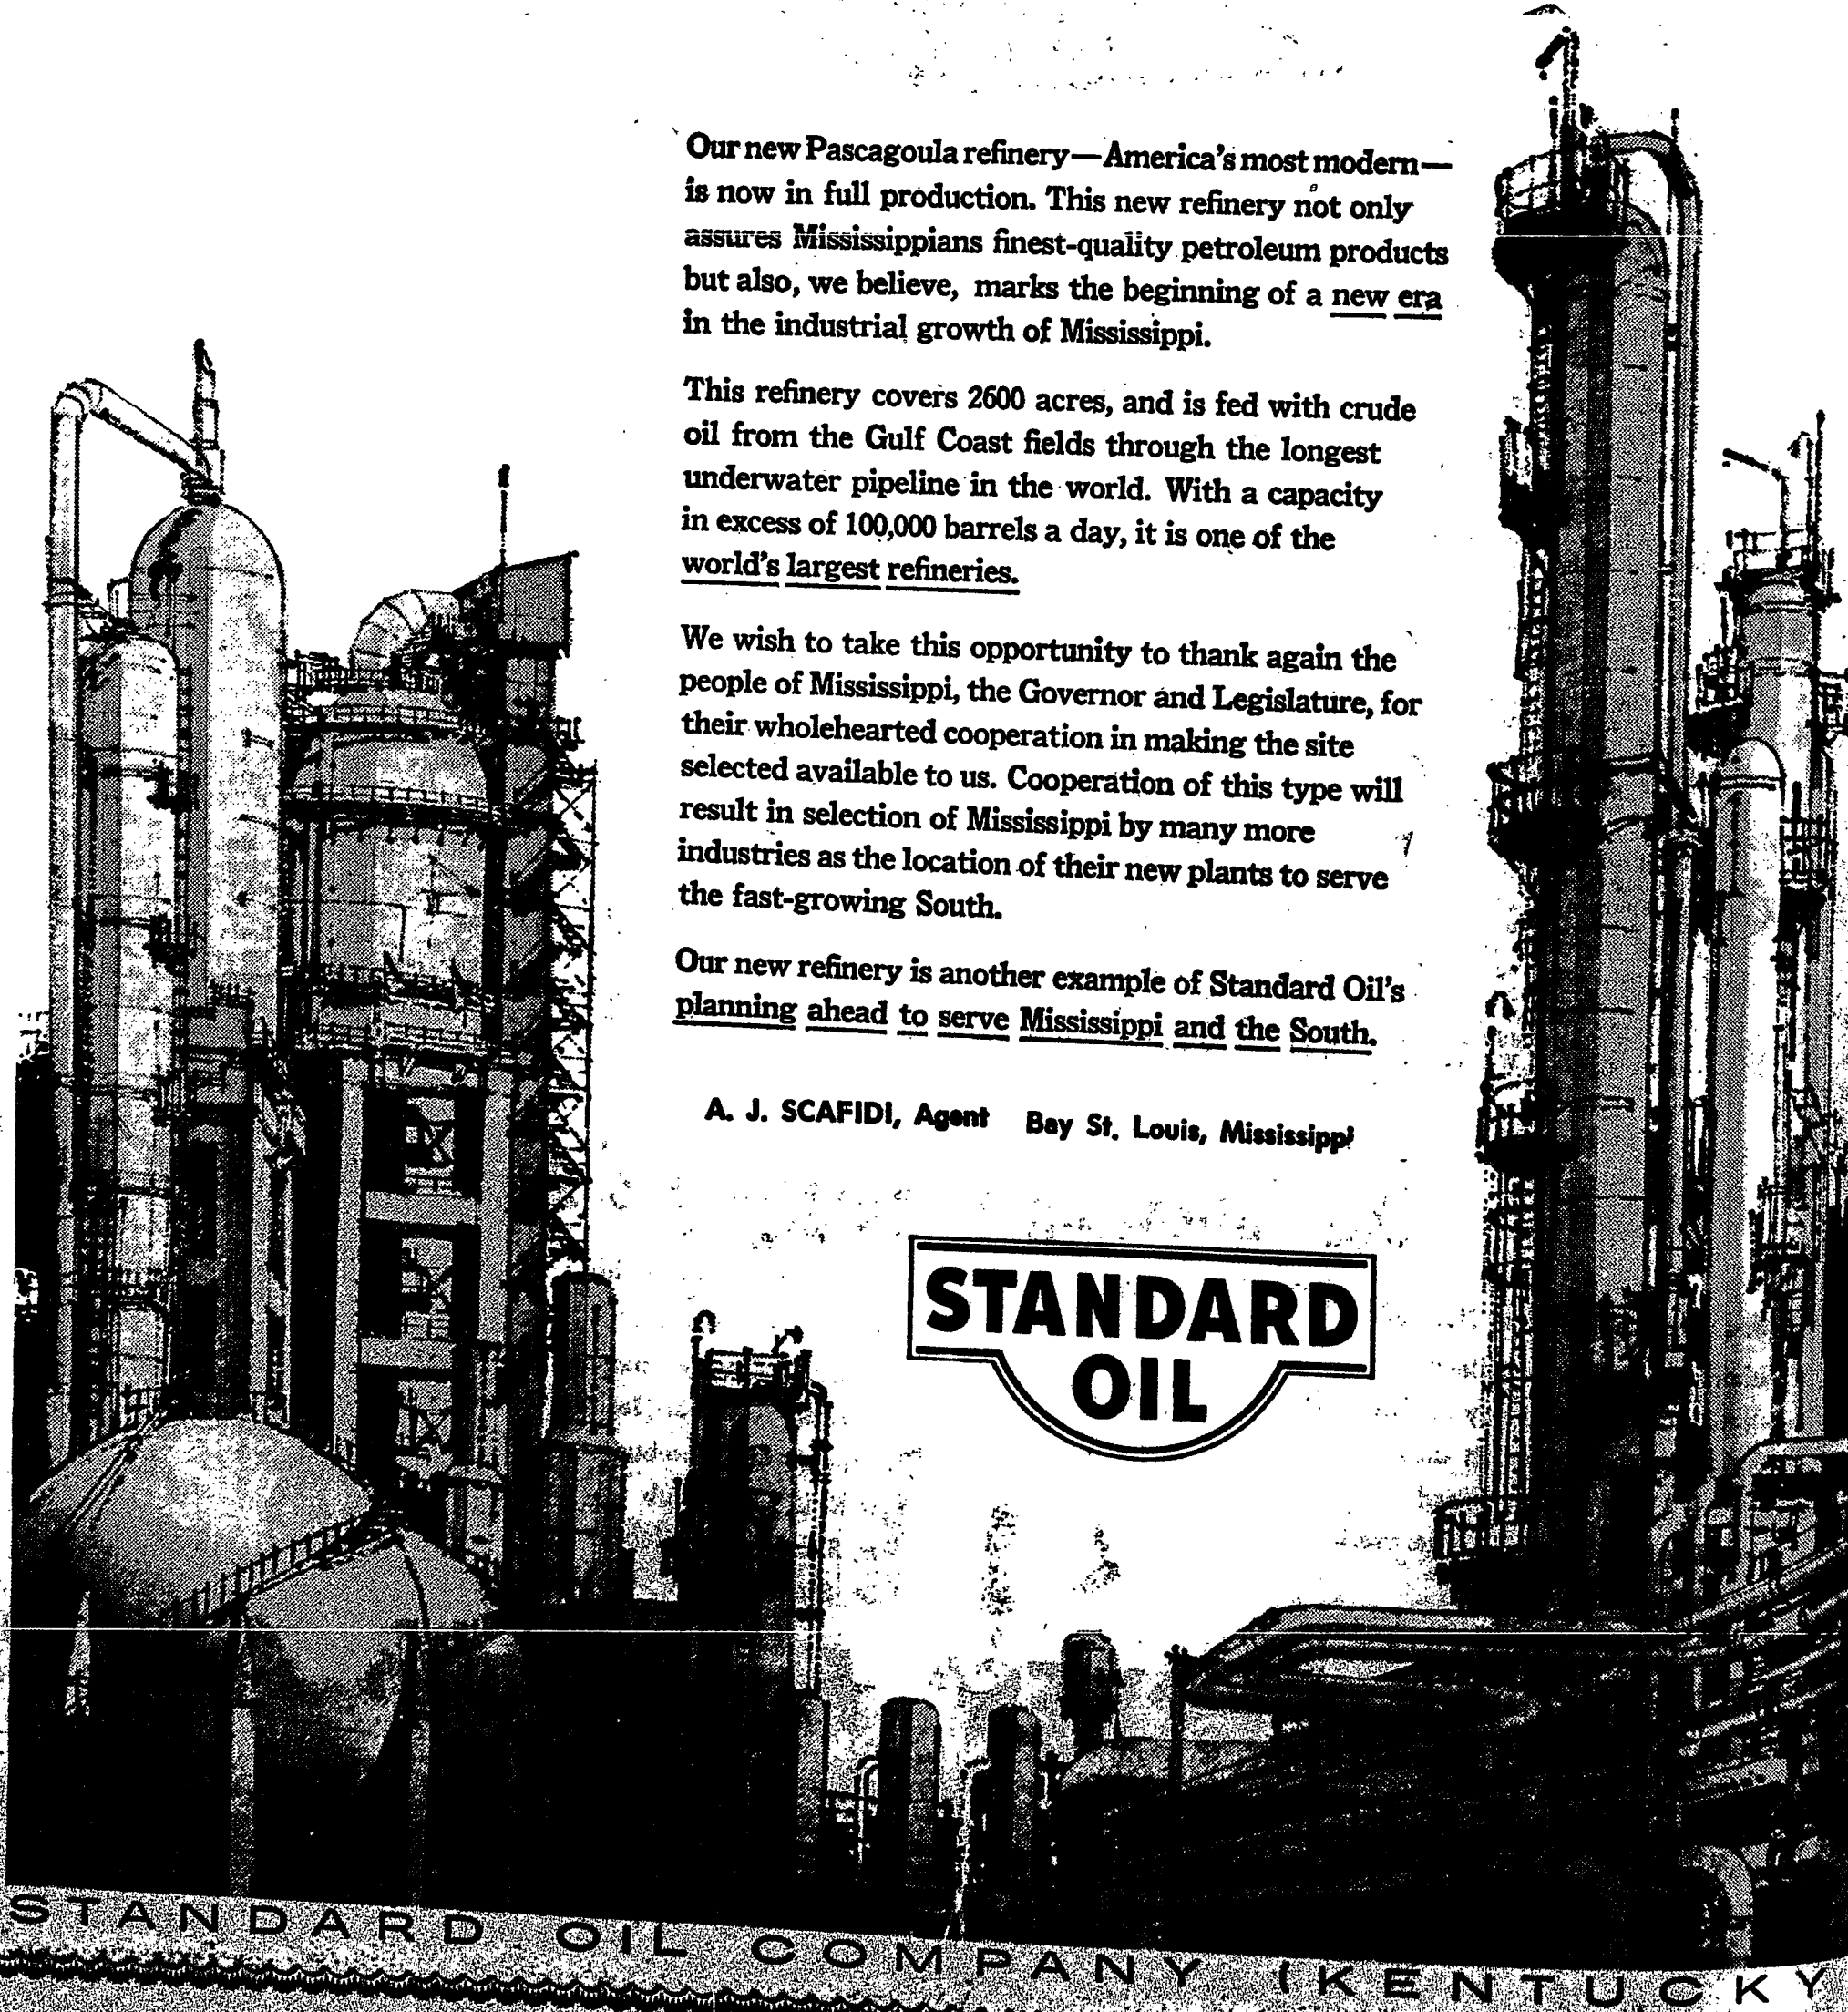

This refinery covers 2600 acres, and is fed with crude oil from the Gulf Coast fields through the longest underwater pipeline in the world. With a capacity in excess of 100,000 barrels a day, it is one of the world's largest refineries.

We wish to take this opportunity to thank again the people of Mississippi, the Governor and Legislature, for their wholehearted cooperation in making the site selected available to us. Cooperation of this type will result in selection of Mississippi by many more industries as the location of their new plants to serve the fast-growing South.

Our new refinery is another example of Standard Oil's planning ahead to serve Mississippi and the South.

purchase of this site, and the location of the refinery at Pascagoula, possible.

"We wish to thank the people of Mississippi, the Governor and Legislature," said W. C. Smith, president of the Standard Oil Company (Kentucky). "For making the site selected available to us. Cooperation of the type extended to us will result in the selection of Mississippi by many more industries as the location for their new plants."

"From seventy-eight years of close observation of the South we have served," continued Mr. Smith, "our company is convinced that Mississippi and the South are on the threshold of greater industrial and economic expansion than they have ever experienced before, and the construction of our Pascagoula refinery is an effort on our part to anticipate this growth, and be prepared to serve the South's expanded needs."

SOIL CONSERVATION NEWS

A staggering number of trees have been planted in Mississippi under the soil conservation district program, according to W. L. Heard, Jackson, state conservationist, Soil Conservation Service.

"In fact," reports Mr. Heard, "during the three years from 1961 through 1963, farmer-cooperators planted a total of 275 million trees. Many of these were provided by the U. S. Forest Service for use on critical land within watershed projects in north Mississippi."

"Most of this planting was on cropland of low capability, which was producing very little, and the remainder was on idle land, which was producing nothing. In years to come, the whole state ought to benefit from this major land use conservation."

SOS specialists help cooperators develop plans for needed treatment of all land and related resources, including woodland, wildlife and recreation. The state conservationist added that SOS foresters are developing intensive study to woodland conservation methods which will protect forests, soil and water, and at the same time produce the high quality timber demanded by today's markets.

Mr. Heard said more than half of Mississippi land is covered in trees. In most cases this is land best suited in a "fore-crop". The intake of the water into the soil is greater than on open land, and there is more usable water underground. Surface water and streams are clear, because tree roots control soil erosion, a major factor in stream pollution.

"Districts have always enjoyed wholehearted cooperation from the Mississippi Forestry Commission."

"These foresters have worked in to district programs with another aim. It has been a wholesome educational experience for the people of Mississippi. A good example of what local leadership and participation can accomplish when working together."

During the annual state meeting at Jackson in January, the Mississippi Association of Soil Conservation District Commissioners set broad program objectives which included forestry. W. A. Powe, Hattiesburg, heads the association's state forestry committee.

As part of a stronger forestry program, the districts recently worked out a Memorandum of Understanding with the Mississippi Forestry Commission for special assistance with woodland management and marketing.

The agreement has already been signed by 70 of Mississippi's 74 districts.

GOP PRIMARY

MISS. Republicans primary elections to candidates for the general ballot in Mississippi will be ready for introduction in the legislature. Legislative sources reported the plan was designed to meet the request of Gov. Paul Johnson to tighten up election laws and place all candidates on the same basis. Sen. Merle Johnson, chairman of the elections committee, declined to discuss the bills but confirmed measures changing election laws were being readied for introduction Thursday. Legislative sources said the plan called for requiring 10 percent of the voters to support a party candidate in a primary election to qualify the primary winner for a spot in the general election ballot. At present, unopposed candidates are not required to run in primaries. This allows the young Mississippi Republican Party to field candidates without primary elections by discouraging more than one person from seeking any office. Primary election expenses must be borne by the party unless it got 33 1/3 per cent of the vote in the last presidential election. The Republicans have not achieved that percentage of the presidential vote, which means they would have to pay their own expenses while the state paid the Democratic primary expenses.

PROPOSAL
The plan also calls for requiring an independent candidate must present a petition signed by 10 per cent of the voters to qualify as an independent. His petition would have to be filed to qualify him by the same date the party candidates qualify for spots on the ballot.

"This will put all candidates on the same basis like the governor requested," a committee source said. "The way it is now, the Republicans and independents have no expenses until after the primaries while the Democrats have a lot of primary expenses."

"And this way they can't wait to see who gets the party nomination before they decide whether to run as independents."

The source said the plan to require 10 per cent of the voters to support a winning primary candidate in his primary election to qualify him was based on a New York law.

"It is designed to keep from cluttering up the ballot with splinter party candidates," the source said.

Democrats began calling for election law changes after the gubernatorial race last year. After winning, Johnson said he had been forced to go through three primaries.

Johnson went through two Democratic primaries and then faced Republican Ruben Phillips, a former Democrat, in the general election. The GOP had incurred no primary expenses while the Democratic candidates had fought high-gear campaigns.

The state Democratic party had to raise funds to finance the general election campaign. The committee source said there was no plan at this time to require registration of all voters by party, as some have suggested.

There is a possibility, however, that such a move also will be made.

LAWMAKERS INTRODUCE MEASURES
JACKSON, MISS. — State Sen. Ike Sanford of Collins, has introduced a bill to require, in places where imported meats are sold, a sign saying: Foreign-grown meat and meat products sold here.

Non-compliance could be punishable by a maximum fine of $300. Both houses of the legislature have passed a resolution asking President Johnson to curtail meat imports.

Also introduced this week in the Senate were:
A bill by Sen. Sonny Montgomery to establish a state historical park near Meridian at the burial site of Samuel D. Jackson.

A concurrent resolution by Sen. Talmadge Littlejohn of New Albany urging Congress to defeat pending amendments to the Fair Labor Standards Act.

Littlejohn's resolution said proposed amendments requiring detailed records and strict supervision relative to wages would be unfair to small businesses who cannot afford bookkeepers.

Bills introduced in the House included measures by:
Rep. Alton Massey of Kosciusko to permit highway patrolmen to retire after 20 years of service, regardless of age.

Rep. Joe Moss of Hinds and others to give the Pearl River Valley Water Supply District power to regulate vehicle travel and parking, and permit civil damages for violation of anti-pollution regulations.

Money to permit persons 70 years old and eligible to receive old age assistance to get maximum benefits without regard to need.

Rep. Hilton Watts of Washington to authorize the state college board to sell four acres used by the Delta Branch Experiment Station to the government as a site for a $250,000 ginning laboratory.

Chevrolet will go to any length to make you happy

Things have changed a lot since a Chevy was only a Chevy. Especially your ideas of what you want a Chevy to be. So now you have the Jet-smooth Chevrolet—17½ feet of pure luxury, bumper to bumper. The size makes it a luxury car, but not the price.

Or you can choose the thrifty Chevy II, 16½-foot family car with all kinds of passenger and luggage space.

This year, your choice might be the new 16-foot-plus Chevelle, sized to fit nicely between Chevrolet and Chevy II (and between parking meters, with five whole feet left over).

Then, too, there's the sporty 16-foot Corvair, so right for so many people (you girls, in particular) that we've never touched an inch of it. And finally, Corvette—still 14½ feet and still too much for any true sports-car lover to say no to.

The long and short of it is, you don't have to go to any length to find exactly the kind of car you want. Just see the five different lines of cars at your Chevrolet dealer's.

March 31 is the deadline for releasing cotton acres to the County ASCS Committee and for asking for additional acres.

Cotton production is a vital part of our total farm economy—it is the largest single part of it. Let's get every acre of cotton allotted to Mississippi planted in 1964.

Last year Mississippi farmer failed to plant, for various reasons, 82,007 acres of cotton. This would test to action by the general membership at the Jaycees' Annual National Convention in Dallas, Texas, June 23-26.

Carter is employed at Coast Electric Power Association.

COULD BE FOR YOU!—Pretty Charlann Paschall, Engineering Queen at the University of Mississippi, goes "bug-eyed" over the $1,425 in prize money to be given to high school students as a part of Ole Miss' giant Engineering Day celebration on March 20. Three different contests can be entered, and information about them is available from the local high school principal or by writing the School of Engineering at Ole Miss. Another attraction of the big March 20 event will be one of the most elaborate exhibits of space age marvels ever seen in Mississippi.

have been worth roughly 21 million dollars to the farmer alone. By the time this 21 million turned over five to seven times, it would have been multiplied by the same amount! Neither Mississippi nor its farmers can afford such a loss.

This year either plant your acreage, rent it or release it to the ASCS for reapportionment to other farmers who will plant it.

And if you request additional cotton acres, be sure that you plant your total allotment, including any additional acres that may be assigned to your farm. March 31 is the deadline for making your decision.

CORN WEED CONTROL

Recommended pre-emergence chemicals to use in corn weed control include simazine, atrazine and Karmex (diuron).

Atrazine can also be applied to corn after the corn is up to a stand. You can apply it broadcast or in a band after the weeds are an inch and half tall or the corn is three weeks old. The atrazine will kill the small weeds and grass and with rain will be activated and continue to give weed and grass control.

For broadleaf weed control in corn, 2, 4-D is recommended. Local county agents have detailed information on use of any of these herbicides.

EGG QUALITY

Protect the quality the hen puts in the egg. Here are a few suggestions for doing so:

Collect eggs from laying house three, four or more times a day. Wash eggs as soon as after gathering, as possible at 110 degree to 120 degree F. using a good detergent-sanitizer.

Change the washer water after five or six baskets of eggs. Dry eggs as fast as possible for fast cooling. Oil the eggs. Pack eggs in clean, pre-cooled cartoning material.

Store eggs at a temperature of 45 to 55 degrees and a relative humidity of 70 to 80 percent. Allow for air circulation in the egg room. Deliver eggs to retailers daily.

We have form 2240 in our office where each farmer can file claim for refund of Federal tax or gasoline used on the farm.

POSTMASTER URGES
CAUTION TO AVOID BEING DEFRAUDED

Noting that mail frauds reach millions from the public annually and are increasing, Postmaster Andy J. Becker urged today that local residents take care in responding to solicitations from unknown companies or to "offers too good to be true."

Mr. Becker said that he had received information material from Postmaster General John A. Gronouski about the problem and that the Postal Service is pressing a strong drive against quackery by mail fraud promotions, spy work-at-home schemes and the like.

Mr. Becker noted that one of the stiffest prison terms ever administered to a medical "con man" was given to Roy Wright DeWelles, of Pass Christian, Miss., who made an estimated 1.5 million peddling a worthless "oxygen therapy" device known as Detoxa-colon.

DeWelles was arrested after ending out 10,000 postal cards promoting the quack scheme.

In another recent case at San Francisco, Edward H. Johnson, doing business as Comstock Land Company and E. H. Johnston company, was sentenced to six months in prison, followed by four and one-half year probation, for mail fraud. Johnson was also ordered to make restitution of 60,000 to purchasers of worthless desert land near Elko, Nevada. Postal inspectors accounted for nearly fifty investors who had signed contracts totaling 250,000 acres, the belief that the famous Nevada Comstock Rank was involved.

In Augusta (Georgia), Homer C. Ward pleaded guilty to mail fraud and was sentenced to two years probation for operating a faith healer scheme. Public loss is estimated in excess of $2,300.

And in Chicago, Beldon Clyde, convicted of violating 18 USC 1821 which forbids use of the mails in the taking of impressions or the manufacture of dentures by other than persons licensed to practice dentistry, was sentenced on December 20 to thirty days in the custody of the Attorney General and two years' probation. Operating a True Grip Dental Laboratory, he encouraged owners of the old plates to make their own impressions with a preparation he furnished and from which new plates were manufactured. Many complaints were received alleging dissatisfaction.

GIANT CABLE REEL 14 feet in diameter, contains 23 miles of partially fabricated ocean "voice paths."

The imposing reel of cable pictured above perhaps best symbolizes the magnitude of the Bell Systems' transoceanic telephone system.

Cable such as this was used in world's longest ocean-spanning telephone cable — 3,800 miles in length — and the first to link the United States directly with Europe.

This type ocean cable can transmit 128 simultaneous conversations — more than three times as many as the first transatlantic cable when it was opened in 1866.

The increased message-carrying capacity is made possible by four, teardrop-shaped repeaters, which are spaced 23 miles apart along the cable to boost voices from shore points to shore. Each repeater contains 5,000 parts and permits voices to travel in both directions over a single cable. Earlier systems used two cables — one for each direction of speech.

Other ocean systems are planned to meet the rapidly growing demand for more telephone capacity between the U. S. and Europe.

Angler's Kitchen

Yep, we have had a few days of good weather and everyone feels much better and raring to go. The waters are better and the fish are beginning to bite. Haven't heard of any big catches but enough were caught the past week for a good fish fry. Understand that speaks are beginning to hit at Free Mason. That's good news and means that fishing should be good soon out in the marshes. There's a lot to look forward to just now, fishing hard crab should begin in earnest. Poor Earnest! In deep holes up Jordan River a number of hard crabs were caught in crab traps. No matter how you catch them they are good eating.

Camping time is just around the corner. For those looking for something to do what's better than to take the family out camping? Mother, dad and the kids can get a kick out of it. Equipment needed: A small tent, cooking gear, a gasoline lantern, fishing outfit, a few potatoes, a few drinks, hard or soft, and sleeping outdoors is good for what ails you. Try it. Bring a few friends with you. There's nothing like it. Fish caught fresh, prepared while alive and fried tastes 100 per cent better. Ask those who know.

Maoul Telford and Pat Garcia reported catching some perch and trout last week. Not too big said Pat.

Better make arrangements to play in the Pass Christian Isles golf tournament this week end. It's a guess of some members of the club. March 21st and 22nd will be a big day at the club.

Met G. Y. Blake Saturday after a long time of course we talked about soft crabbing. He says he will be over soon to participate in his favorite sport.

Another mistake. Said last week Dick Tarleton had the golf course at Pass Christian Isles in perfect shape. Cal Smith is pro and not Dick. Sorry Cal. Didn't realize how much this column is read.

The oyster supper at the Yacht Club Saturday night was a success and well attended. Congratulations to the cooks who were all members of the Club.

War sorry to hear of the death of two more swell guys George Anderson and Wallace Bontemps. Sympathy is extended to the families.

Al Ruschel and fishing partner "Nookie" were over Sunday from New Orleans and reported catching some salt water fish up Jordan River. They were using dead bait and Al said the fish were biting real good.

According to the Times-Picayune of Monday, March 16th.

Total betting at the Fair Grounds for 28 days this winter reached $34,048,064 for a daily average of $395,807. John S. Letteller, Fair Grounds president reported.

"This does not include Red Cross Day when we handled $315,577," Letteller said.

Attendance during the season hit 603,708 for a daily average of 6,534.

The season closed on Saturday with a record crowd and a number of local fans attending.

Alden Mauffray and Perre Quintini caught some nice perch and green trout up Pearl River way Sunday. They were using fly rods and reported the water was clear and it seemed like the fish were hungry.

For those who like racing the Jefferson Downs 52nd spring season opened Tuesday night with the running of the St. Patrick Handicap. The track is on David Drive in Jefferson Parish.

Gone are the days of the drab boat cushion. The latest accessory for the fisherman's boat this year is a bright yellow boat cushion bearing portraits of his favorite fishing plugs. Just the sight of this cushion is enough to make a fish jump into the boat.

The idea of creating a boat cushion just for fisherman came to Dick Kotis, President of the Fred Arbogast Company, several months ago.

This cushion is a honey and makes a wonderful gift for the fisherman. Most all fishing shops have them in stock.

Crayfish time is here and the mud bugs are being caught at Michoud, on Highway 50 just about 15 miles east of New Orleans and at La Place on the main Hi-way out from New Orleans to Baton Rouge.

Spring is here and it is time to plant that backyard vegetable garden. A few seeds and a little work is all that is needed to furnish your self with your own vegetables. It's fun for those who are retired with nothing to do. It's a pleasure to watch 'em grow.

LEGAL SECRETARIES HOLD MEETING

The Harrison, Hancock and Jackson Counties Legal Secretaries Association held its monthly meeting at Mississippi City Branch of the Hancock Bank on Wednesday, March 11, 1964. There were twelve members present and one guest.

It was brought to the attention of the members present that the second annual convention of this Association will be held in Laurel, Mississippi, on April 24, 25, & 26. Three delegates, Mrs. Billie L. Padgett, Mrs. M. L. Tootle, and Mrs. Barbara White, were elected to attend said convention, and three alternates, Mrs. Mary Larson, Miss Margaret Meyn and Miss Ursula Favre, were also elected to serve in the absence of the delegates.

Mr. George E. Morse, attorney of Gulfport, spoke on the Mississippi Workman's Compensation Act, giving some typical cases that come before the Commission, and explaining the functions of said Act.

The door prize was won by Mrs. Barbara White, of the firm of Gex and Gex, Bay St. Louis, Mississippi.

The next meeting will be held on April 8th, and all legal secretaries are asked to attend.

VOTE FOR THE BOND ISSUE

To Our Fellow Citizens of Bay St. Louis:

Saturday, March 21, we vote on the proposed $3,000,000 Sewage, Water and Gas System Bond Issue.

This is one of the most important elections ever held in our community and there are certain factors that we sincerely hope you will consider in making up your mind.

A few of them are:

1. Your taxes will not be increased.
2. Under present conditions, we have SERIOUS HEALTH & FIRE HAZARDS which ONLY passage of the Bond Issue can remedy.
3. If we fail to pass the Bond Issue this time, the problem IS STILL NOT SOLVED; Just: to a later date when the COST WILL BE HIGHER.
4. Only Bay St. Louis and Pass Christian remain of the large communities on the Gulf Coast without sewage and adequate water. If we are to keep up with the times and attract our share of new residents from NASA it is VERY NECESSARY for us to provide facilities as good as these newcomers have been accustomed to
5. Do you remember last summer when you could hardly get water to run in your bathrooms, PASSING this issue will solve that problem (and it's going to get worse if we don't)
6. Right now fire insurance rates on nearly 4 out of 5 homes in Bay St. Louis are $39.55 per year for $5,000 of insurance. Passage of this issue will reduce that to at least $20.90 per year in each of those houses.
7. Your septic tank problem of overflow and regular pumping out will be over with the new sewage system.
8. Have you asked your doctor about the health risk we are running in our community right now without sanitary sewage. If not, please do so and remember: only passage of this issue can correct this.

When you go to the polls Saturday won't YOU vote FOR the Bond Issue and progress

NCCW WEST COAST DEANERY MEET IN GULFPORT

The West Coast Deanery of the Diocesan Council of Catholic Women met Wednesday, March 11, in the Civic Room of the Gulf National Bank in Gulfport, with 29 women from the parishes of Bay St. Louis, Pass Christian, Long Beach and Gulfport, and three guests from St. James Vianney Parish, Clermont Harbor, attending.

Reports of activities of the different parishes were given by Miss Jane Lang and Miss Edna Knost, St. Paul's Pass Christian; Mrs. Gus Alfonso and Mrs. R. Evans, St. James, Gulfport; Miss Mary Boggs, St. Thomas, Long Beach and Mrs. G. F. Stevenson, Our Lady of the Gulf.

Miss Knost, who reported on libraries and literature, asked for volunteers from each parish to assist in forming classes to review literature for young people.

Miss Boggs, spiritual leader, urged the women to participate in more spiritual activities particularly during this Lenten season.

The president, Mrs. R. L. McMurray, explained for the benefit of visitors and newcomers the functioning of the N. C. C. W., citing it had been organized more than 30 years ago at the request of the bishops of the United States.

It has been the means, she added, of fostering such activities as literature and movie screening in order to reduce unfit books and pictures placed before young people, and it has placed Catholic women in positions where they have been instrumental in assisting in national affairs.

Mrs. Greco M. Antiech, public relations chairman for St. John's Parish, told of her success in having several radio stations along the Coast publicize meetings.

Representing the clergy at the meeting were Father J. Donohue, pastor of St. Thomas' Church and Father George Broussard of St. John's.

The hostess group served coffee and cookies at the conclusion of the meeting.
